PLANNING BOARD MOVES TO DENY R-30 ZONING FOR PARCELS 1, 2

by Elaine Skolnik

By a 4 to 1 margin, the Prince Georges County Planning Board on Wednesday, June 3, moved to recommend denial of R-30 apartment zoning (14 units per acre) for parcels 1 and 2 — the land between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and Greenbelt Homes, Inc. property. Instead, the Planning Board recommended R-80 zoning (single-family homes) and R-T (townhouses — 10 units per acre) for the 125 acres remaining in parcels 1 and 2 (after deductions for schools, rights-of-way, and parks). The land is presently zoned R-R (rural residential). The county Commissioners will have the final say.

This decision was in accord with the recommendations of the Technical Staff of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission and the Greenbelt city council.

Four Petitions

Actually the Board had before it four separate zoning applications submitted by the owners, Charles Bresler and Theodore Lerner. The Board's recommendations, broken down by acreage, were as follows:

	(Numbers in acres)
	R-T	R-80	Other
A-5344	—	13.3	2.6
A-5344	15.6	74.3	19.8
A-5345	—	1.0	4.5
A-5346	19.9	—	—
	35.5	88.6	26.9

The first three applications deal with property located north of Northway extended. The fourth application deals with property south of Northway road, extending from Hamilton Place to the Lutheran Church site.

Application A-5344, which involves the most acreage (109.7 acres), would be divided, according to the Board's recommendations, so that R-T zoning would prevail west of the proposed perimeter road and R-80 east of the perimeter road. Fifteen acres would be reserved for parkland and 4.8 acres for an 80-foot right of way for the perimeter road.

No Presentation

Attorney William Kahler, who represented the owners, told the Board the applicants had agreed not to make a presentation. Applications, he said, had been pending since 1963, during which time there have been several suggestions for the use of this property. Originally, R-18 (21 units per acre) was asked for and then changed to R-30 to conform with the 1965 recommendations of MNCPPC. "This has dragged on and on for years," said Kahler. There have been many plans and now MNCPPC is recommending R-80 and R-T, he explained.

The negative vote on the Board was cast by Theodore Miazga, who wanted the property zoned conditionally under the cluster ordinance. The rest of the Board felt that the developer should seek this option. Kahler also agreed that the decision to request cluster zoning should be up to the developer, although he didn't see how the land could be developed any other way (most of the property he said, exceeds 12 percent grade).

Miazga saw the cluster device as a means for the developer to get his density while preserving trees, open space, and parkland without the community's having to acquire the land. MNCPPC chairman William Dutton thought it undesirable at this stage to fix a design solution until the subdivision plats were submitted and the cluster conditions were rejected.

City Position

In supporting the Technical Staff recommendations, City Manager James K. Giese made known the city's desire to acquire about 30 See ZONING DENIAL, p. 2, c. 3

Peace Committee to Meet

The Greenbelt Peace Committee will meet on Thursday June 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Greenbelt Library.

Agenda includes a discussion of peace resolutions adopted by other cities.

Mayor Is Candidate for County Commissioner

On Sunday, June 7, at the Council Room of the Greenbelt Municipal Building, Mayor Francis W. White announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination as one of the Prince Georges County Commissioners. The Mayor, in announcing his candidacy, reminded all his friends and supporters present that he was "responding to their urging in seeking a county or state position."

During his speech, the Mayor mentioned a number of problems affecting this area, among them the school site, dangerous earth banks, and erosion from stripped lands. The Mayor indicated that these would be high on his priority list for attention.

Other problems which he viewed with concern were the high cost of county government and the need for a fairer share of state allocations for education and a fairer distribution of motor vehicle taxes.

Toward the end of his speech the Mayor said he "favored broad fiscal reforms, among which were the phasing out of the property tax to ensure a more equitable distribution of the tax burden." When queried on this statement, the Mayor said that the property tax is unfair and is considered as one of the most archaic tax structures we have. He said that he favored a "tax based on income rather than on property."

Council Retains 80¢ Tax Rate, But Only Thru Tax Base Rise

by Al Skolnik

A last-minute report from the city treasurer verifying an increase in the city's assessable tax base by $2.4 million over the original estimate made it possible for city council on Monday, June 8, to adopt a municipal 1970-71 budget that retained the same property tax rate as last year — $0.80 per $100 assessed valuation. The increase in the tax base to $47.5 million resulted primarily from the county assessor's office identifying additional properties within the city's boundaries.

Despite herculean efforts by the city council in cutting the budget submitted by city manager James K. Giese by $58,650, a tax increase would not have been avoided without the higher assessed valuation.

Meeting to Request Hearings on School Site

On Tuesday, June 16, at 10 a.m. representatives of the Save Our Community Committee and Woodway Community Development, Inc., will meet with the Board of Education in the School Board Administration Building board room annex, to present petitions requesting a series of public hearings in Greenbelt on the subject of relocating the proposed junior-senior high school complex.

The Greenbelters will also ask that there be no clearing, grading or construction work done on parcel 2 until after the board and the city have exchanged position papers, have honored the sense of the Maryland General Assembly resolution (SJR-81), and have held hearings as requested by petition.

James Bates, president of the Woodway organization recently received a reply from Governor Mandel's Administrative Officer for Education, Fred H. Spigler, Jr., informing him of a section of the Public School Code providing for a hearing on petition of one hundred adult residents.

Interested citizens are urged to attend. Transportation to the meeting will be arranged by Mrs. Josephine Ross, 474-1275.

City Contracts to Buy 3 Acres of Parcel 15

The city concluded an agreement on June 8 with the trustees for a portion of parcel 15, (Reiner, Lerner, and Ammerman), to purchase 2.93 acres of the property bordering the southwest shore of the lake for $52,500. According to city manager James K. Giese, this was the maximum figure that council would authorize short of seeking condemnation proceedings through the courts. The Federal Government had earlier approved the city's application of open space funds for purchase of the property, which will insure the city of parkland surrounding virtually all of the lake, except for some private residences on Lakeside and in the Lakecrest subdivision cul-de-sacs.

The land acquired extends north from Lakecrest Drive, between the lake and the highrise apartment building. It includes the present pathway, which has previously been on private property, and extends to a point at the water main right-of-way below the dam.

The only development of the newly acquired land projected in the new budget is for improvement of the path.

The city council is expected to authorize the purchase at its next regular meeting on June 15.

The estimates for other revenues items were unchanged, except for a $10,000 increase in the city's share of the Maryland Income tax and an $800 increase in the city's share of the State gasoline and motor vehicles tax.

The adopted budget, however, does call for an increase in waste collection charges, effective July 1, 1970. For owner-occupied homes, the basic charge will increase 75 cents a month to $3.25. The rates for others will be increased proportionately. Council expressed concern as to whether these increases would be sufficient to avoid a deficit in waste collection operations and asked Giese to present periodic fiscal reports during the year. Non-users of the waste collection service had pointed to the inequity of using general funds to subsidize the operation.

Budget up 8.7%

The adopted budget calls for expenditures during the year ending June 30, 1971, of $1,071,350, an increase of 8.7 percent over the 1970 fiscal year appropriation of $985,300.

Helping to balance the budget was $70,000 appropriated from surplus funds from previous years' operations. Adding to this the $621,700 anticipated from sources other than real property taxes left $379,650 to be raised through the real property tax. Applying this amount to the assessable tax base of $47.5 million yields a tax rate of $0.80 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Major Cuts

Almost every major capital expenditure item was affected by the reductions made by council. In addition, council deleted the additional police officer proposed by Giese and one of the three additional workers proposed for the public works crew.

A major deletion was $14,500 for the improvement of access roads to the proposed parcel 2 high school site. Council indicated that money from a $12,000 contingency fund would be available to make a study of alternative sites, if needed.

Another major cut — of $15,400 — took place in the police department. A major decision here was to postpone the establishment of a traffic safety division, which would have been funded in part by Federal funds under the Highway Safety Act. Equipment such as a breathalyzer and photocopy machine were deleted. The council also rejected a proposal for annual replacement of squad cars.

Other cuts in the budget included: (1) Deletion of $3,500 for construction of second driveway entrance to fire station building. (2) Reduction of $4,500 in funds for completion of reconstruction of Laurel Hill Road north of Ridge. Council noted that there will be additional funds available from the 1970 budget and Greenbelt Homes, Inc., will be asked to finance that portion of the project dealing with off-the-street right of way.

(3) Deletion of $2,500 for four street lights on Centerway.

(4) Reduction of contributions to recreation groups from $7,825 to $5,000. The Greenbelt Band's request was reduced to $750 and the Boys Club to $1,500, with the proviso that additional funds will be considered for new programs, if needed.

(5) Deletion of $800 for alteration of city offices and $1,200 for carpet tile for Municipal Building. The council allowed, however, $300 for installing carpet tile on a trial basis in the city manager's office.

(6) Deletion of $1,500 for development of a nature trail and garden on parcel 15 along the shore of the lake. At the same time, matching Federal funds were deleted from the revenue side of the budget.

Citizen Privileges?

To the Editor:

My interest in buying into GHI and moving to Greenbelt was sparked by hearing that Greenbelters, especially those living in GHI, were individuals who appreciated and valued their citizen privileges and also used them; that members of GHI were active participants in their cooperative. Greenbelters fought the good fight—for their community and their country—they were large-minded and visionaries—yet aware of practical problems. The cooperative had a dream. I wanted to be a part of that dream and that community. I wanted to do my small part if it was only voting in the GHI annual elections, the city elections, and county elections.

Here are some figures on the most recent Greenbelt elections:

	Reg.	Voters	Notes
GHI Election	1,592	421	26%
City Election
Center	1,012	798	79%
North End	869	716	82%

County Election
3rd Precinct	2,605	2,164	83%
6th Precinct	2,044	1,707	84%

Only 64% of City Reg. 4,649 3,871 83% There are 1,532 eligible units in GHI. There are nearly 20,000 people in the city of Greenbelt.

Retain Church Property

To the Editor:

I agree with Mayor White and Councilwoman Maffay that the city should not sell the Lutheran Church property. The real value of the land cannot be assessed in dollars and cents. It is choice green space in a central location, easily accessible to hundreds of children and adults. The building itself is a necessary addition to the city's heavily used recreation facilities.

In my opinion, and in the view of those who answered the voter's questionnaire last year, the Council's recent purchase of the church property was justified. It was another step towards the fulfillment of the promise of this greentown.

acres of flood plains in the northeast corner. The city also recommended that the perimeter road be curved eastward so as to put the route further away from the GHI property line. Thus curvature would make available a somewhat larger area for the R-T zone and a somewhat smaller area for R-80 zone.

In response to this, Roy Cowell, MNCPPC Chief of Development Division, stated his belief that the road could possibly curve some 200 feet to the east but noted that there was a nob further north which would prevent too much curving.

GHI Manager, Roy Breashears also made a presentation supporting the Technical Staff's recommendations.

One of the major reasons given by the Technical Staff for recommending denial was that the requests were in conflict with the proposals of the College Park-Greenbelt Master Plan, which was adopted on March 12, 1969, by MNCPPC. Other reasons given were that the R-30 zone would create an imbalance of multi-family dwellings, producing a density detrimental to the public interest and incompatible with the surrounding development and proposed public facilities.

One Planning Board member expressed concern about the desirability of R-80 zoning along the Parkway. A MNCPPC representative stated that the Parkway would be a buffer within itself, noting also that there would be no access from the Parkway.

Merritt ("Mert") Pate, who was seriously injured in a swimming accident, would enjoy getting cards and letters from all his friends. His address is Halsted, 5th floor, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Glad to hear that six-year-old Alison Witcher, 39 Lakeside, is feeling better after undergoing minor surgery.

Simon Pristoop has been appointed chairman of the County Zoning Appeals Board by the county commissioners.

Austin Green received the General Services Administration Citation & Service Award for an outstanding performance rating on May 21. Sgt. Green, formerly with the Greenbelt Police Department, also received a 10-year service pin.

Former city manager, Charles T. McDonald, 28 Woodland, has been spending much of his time in the new town of Columbia. A consultant with John Donaho and Associates of Baltimore, McDonald has been working on a research project, "Facts and Figures for Columbia City." Columbia is not a municipality, and services are provided through Howard County. The report, which makes projections through 1975, deals with the amount of contributions made by Columbia to the County and the returns it receives from the county.

Christopher James Linstrom, T.O.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Linstrom 11-C Ridge, a novice at the Province of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Third Order Regular of Saint Francis, pronounced his Simple Vows on June 1 in the Sacred Heart Monastery, Winchester, Virginia.

The Turner family of 47 Lakeside Drive will entertain Mrs. Turner's sister and family, the R. H. Lakes of Mahwah, New Jersey in June. Both families will also be spending a week in Ocean City later in the month.

There are two graduations in the Turner family. Mary Eliza-

SHL Voter Registration

Springhill Lake Community Building will be open again to register voters for this year's Primary and General elections.

On Thursday, June 11, the second special County voter registration is Springhill Lake will be held from 5 - 9 p.m. at the Community Building. All qualified County residents may register at this time and become eligible to vote in the 1970 State and County elections.

At the first special registration in Springhill Lake on May 7, almost 400 voters became eligible to vote. As was the case on May 7, Greenbelt books will also be available for those who wish to register as City voters.

For information, call Joe Mulvihill, 345-3638.

beth was graduated from Trinity College, Washington, D.C., with an A.B. in Math and a chemistry minor. Mrs. Eileen Turner, a candidate in Bowie States first Masters' Degree program will receive the Masters' Degree in Psychology, social studies on June 6.

Eva Garin, 29 Lakeside, received a B.A. degree with high honors in the field of education from the University of Maryland.

And a very happy birthday to Jerry Goodin, who celebrated his ninetieth birthday on Wednesday! Jerry, who works for many of the Greenbelt merchants in the Center, is known and loved by all for his happy disposition.

Glad to hear that Mary Geiger, 101 Lakeside, is recovering at home after surgery.

Congratulations to Carol Collins and Debbie Hibbs, who received awards from Greenbelt Junior High School for their contribution as columnists for the News Review. The girls authored the column, "Junior Highlights."

Congratulations to Mrs. Ruby Felde, 11-A Parkway, who graduated from Prince Georges Community College on June 6. Mrs. Felde received an Associate Degree in the field of nursing and is currently working at P.G. General Hospital.

City Notes

The city has received notice of a public hearing for a special exception, scheduled for 10 a.m., Wed., June 17, in Upper Marlboro. Applicants are Raymond J. and Shirley Hibbs, 123 Lakeside Dr., who are applying for permission to erect an amateur radio antenna. The request will be presented to city council at their next regularly scheduled meeting on June 15.

Additional summer staff has been hired by the city, most of whom will begin work starting June 15. Bill Edwards, former manager of the municipal swimming pool and now a teacher in Prince Georges County, will take a summer position as Administrative Aide to the City Manager.

Eight young people, mostly high school age, will work for the Public Works Dept., six on the Parks crew, and two on the general crew. These will augment the regular staff, which for the first time in many weeks, is now up to capacity. The refuse collection crew, which has been chronically short of staff, now has a full complement.

The pool manager this summer is Rick Mest.

During the month of May the city conducted a survey of boat rentals at the lake concession in order to determine the residency of those renting boats. Throughout the month 46% of residents used the boats, as against 54% of non-resident. On weekends, however, the proportion of non-residents was somewhat higher—on one weekend as much as two-thirds of all boat users.

In addition to boat renters, 60 residents of Greenbelt now have boats registered with the city.

Southway Rd. was closed for about three hours on June 8 when a new pipe was laid in position across the roadway. Much of the current work is being done by WSSC, which is relocating some of its facilities. Following the laying of new sewer lines, the contractor will construct new curbing on both sides of the street, setting them at the new grade.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad has been manned for many years by well qualified men and women volunteers who have been on the alert twenty-four hours a day and have dedicated their lives to serve our community and those in distress, and

WHEREAS, the Ambulance and Rescue Squad has been ever ready to assist the sick and injured and to provide aid and transportation to those in need of emergency treatment, and has maintained its equipment in such condition as to insure the most expeditious and best possible care, and

WHEREAS, the Ambulance and Rescue Squad is hopeful of reaching its goal in the annual fund drive so as to afford the same high quality service in the future, now therefore,

I, Francis W. White, Mayor of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, do hereby proclaim the

AMBULANCE AND RESCUE SQUAD FUND DRIVE

In grateful recognition of the humanitarian services rendered by these gallant volunteers and to appeal to all citizens of Greenbelt to join in this tribute and to indicate their support and appreciation by their generous contribution to the Greenbelt Ambulance and Rescue Squad.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Greenbelt to be affixed this 9th Day of June, 1970.

FRANCIS W. WHITE, MAYOR
